

Section A

Entity Relationship Diagram

A.1. Introduction

The Entity Relationship Diagram (ERD) below represents the complete data model for the RaceDay system. The system has been designed to support event management for road running, walking, and cycling events in South Africa. The database consists of eight (8) entities that capture all necessary information for the system to function effectively.

A.2. ERD Diagram

